Seven Orinda Explorer Boy Scouts Plan 5-Week Canoe Trip in North

Seven Orinda Explorer Scouts are eagerly awaiting June 28 when they will leave on a five week canoe trip into British Columbia. Under the leadership of Post Advisor. Wilbur Twining, nearly all of the plans have been worked out.

With the cooperation of E. E. Wickman, a 12 passenger suburban carryall was purchased to transport the boys on their 4000 mile trek.

PREPARATIONS

Several of the scouts have special projects in making final preparations. Some of these include, Phil Dawson, fishing, Bill Morrish, plaster casts of animal tracks and fish, Boyd Wickman, food lists, Bill Koch, canoe repair, Herb Haworth, water safety measures, Dick Breuner, finances, and Dick Laney, historical places to visit.

The route will take the boys to Crater Lake, Mt. Hood, Boneyville Dam, Portland, Seattle, Vancouver, B. C., then up the Fraser River following the route of the Argonants over the Caribou trail. The Fraser will be followed to the town of Quesned. Then for 75 miles the road leads into the heart of the Cariboo Mts. and the Mother Lode of the gold rush days of the 1860's. Some 25 miles beyond the little mining towns of Wells and Berkerville the scouts will embark on an 18 day canoe trip. Into the Mts. they will paddle some 200 miles before returning to their car.

PICTURES TO BE TAKEN

Armed with 4000 feet of color film and assisted by Mr. Laney who will fly up to meet the party, Twining plans to produce two new films of the activities of the Orinda scouts. Many local people will remember his films of High Sierra activities taken in the past two summers.

The trip home will include Vancouver Island, Victoria, Olympia National Park, and the Oregon Coast. August 1, is the date scheduled for their return to Orinda.

Planning Board Studying Changes In Zoning Law

County Planning Commission is considering several amendments to the master zoning ordinance, Thomas Heaton, planning technician, announced this week.

He also said that the Commission has not yet arrived at a decision on the rezoning application of Ernest Stainton to allow construction of multiple-dwelling units on his Mt. Diablo Boulevard property. Nor has a recommendation been made on the request of the Lafayette Orchards Improvement Association for the rezoning from "retail business" to "residential" of highway lots one half mile east of the Lafayette business section.

The proposed amendments are:

That signs at entrances to real estate subdivisions be limited to four by six feet. The present ordinance provides that signs be small, but specifies no actual dimensions, Heaton said.

That when land now zoned agricultural is subdivided, it must be cut into one-half acre parcels, instead of one-quarter acre as is now the law. (Heaton explained that in many areas, such as now in Orinda, residents wish the assurance that agricultural lands will not be subdivided into very small units.)

That when a rear yard breaks into another resident's side yard, that there be at least a five foot set back in the rear yard.

That commercial stables be permitted in certain areas now prohibited.

The Commission will present its recommendation on these and other matters to the Board of Supervisors. The Board will consider them in the form of amendments to the zoning ordinance.

The Contra Costa Real Estate Board is studying the proposed amendments, according to Lawrence Wallace, Board officer.

Brrr, Country Club Pool Is Now Open

The Orinda Country Club pool opened as planned last Saturday from 10 'til 6. Every thing was in order and the only comment on the part of the swimmers was. "brrr, the water's cold."

The pool will adhere to its previous announced open schedule with the exception of some unforseen difficulties.

Golf Tourney Is Entering Finals

The Orinda Country Club's annual Womens Golf Tournament will hold its finals this morning. The contest has had the advantage of good weather and consequently the eliminations have been fast and sharp.

In the semi-finals played on Thursday the group of four that were matched were; Mrs. H. Hales and Mrs. E. R. Randall; Mrs. Ruth Noble and Mrs. J. W Small

The future club champion in the group is a toss-up, but the odds are on the defending champ, Mrs. Randall, and the medalist, Mrs. Hales.

Come One, Come All to 49-er Night With Connie Boswell Heading Show

Yes, sir, step right up . . .

The Orinda Lions' 49'er night promises to be one of the gayest evenings in these parts for many moons and to top off the entertaining program none other than songstress Connie Boswell will be on hand.

Come, one, come all . . .

It'll cost you plenty, pardner, for hot dogs will probably sell for dollars and dollars — in the script to be exchanged for good American money.

CAN-CAN

There'll be something cooking every minute . . . from time to time the entertainers will take over, headed by the lovely Connie Boswell, assisted by Magician Jay Bedsworth . . .

And, ah, yes Orinda's very own Can-Can chorus of Orinda lovelies.

The main prize of the event is a GE home freezer, donated by Joe Ortland.

FOR CIVIC PROJECTS

The proceeds are for civic betterment projects, such as Scouts, playground equipment.

The Lions will transform the Willows into a Frontier Dance Hall and you can jump and jive to your heart's content.

Yes, sir, step right up, and get your ticket for the most sensational . . .

Civic Affairs Elects Spott As Chairman

Bob Spott, President of the Orinda Oaks Improvement Association, was elected chairman of the Civic Affairs Committee at its meeting Monday at the Fire House.

Keene Pettengill, who was previously chairman, recently sent in his resignation.

The well- attended meeting was devoted to reorganizing and making plans for the group's work. Such problems as sewers, roads, community center and zoning will be delegated to committees which will in turn make reports.

The Civic Affairs Committee is a sub-committee of the Orinda Association. Twenty-two groups in Orinda are entitled to send representatives.

Let's Not Waver in Planning Phone Protest

Officials of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company returned to our office last week with the statement that "they will have some material to present to our communities within weeks." L. T. Marshall, district manager, said they are working on our problems.

We are happy to hear this, for we all knew that it was obvious that our problems could be ignored or delayed by the company for only so long.

But at the same time we firmly believe that their belated action should in no way deter us from continuing plans to seek an equitable solution to our phone problems.

To be more specific: let us plan to ask the State Utilities Commission to completely review our inadequate service and high rate structure.

There is good reason why we should not procrastinate.

Remember, nine officials of the phone company attended a meeting in Lafayette last January to report on what the phone company planned to do to improve service in the area.

Net result: nothing: they told us nothing new; and we learned nothing except the phone company is not cognizant of our needs.

Out of this meeting something could have been accomplished. They promised to thoroughly study our problems and report back. This they have not done.

A month or so ago, a high company officer bluntly told this newspaper that they have been working so hard on the rate case before the commission that they hadn't found time to work on our problems.

To our knowledge, nothing further was done, until this newspaper added the increase of "long distance rates" in the area to the list of telephone problems.

We addressed an open letter to the telephone company asking pertinent questions.

This letter was ignored. We have yet to receive a written answer, although a local official answered some of our questions when WE CALLED HIM.

These and other incidents do not indicate a sincere willingness of the phone company to co-operate in solving telephone problems. (Remember, our problems are their problems.) On the other hand, some observers suggest the phone company purposely delayed any action until the rate case was settled.

But the rate case was settled unsatisfactorily to P.T.&T. The Commission's decision was a great blow to the company. And the company may challenge the decision in court. We do not want to get caught in more delaying tactics while a legal battle is being fought.

For these reasons, we reiterate:

LET US NOT WAVER FROM OUR ONLY SOURCE OF RECOURSE — A PROTEST AND APPEAL TO THE UTILITIES COMMISSION.

Now this does not imply that we should not respectfully and intelligently study material submitted by the phone company. It should receive our fullest consideration. Let us continue to work with them to the best of our ability.

In fact, that was the original plan: before protesting to the Utilities Commission, confer with the company. So far working with the company has produced nothing.

Even now the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce has resolved to talk to the San Francisco P.T.&T. officers before carrying a protest to the Commission. Chamber officers have asked the telephone company for a report IN WRITING before any conference. The implication was that the Chamber wants facts — not words from public relation's men.

All this indicates that we are trying to meet the telephone company more than half way.

We have every right to expect the same from the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Entered as second-class matter June 17, 1943, at the post office at Lafayette, California, under the Act of March 3, 1879. Printed at 1 Moraga Road, Lafayette.

Captain Sandford Sez:

We took in the Children's Horse Show at Walnut Creek . . . an excellent show indeed. The youngsters were so natural and so capable with their horses. Several of the classes were very large and the riders so uniformly good that I did not envy the task of the judges. The boys riding steers did very well.

Returning home we encountered two kiddies, a boy and a girl on their horses endeavoring to cross the State Highway from north to south at Springbrook Road. Their horses were nervous and restive and the automobile drivers would not yield an inch to permit the little tykes to cross in safety.

I stopped my car and blocked the east going lane. One reckless driver dashed through on my right separating the girl and the boy, while others sounded their horns noisily and impatiently to complicate matters. At last they were safely across and they called back to us, "Thank you very much."

We borrowed two children from our neighbors to take with us . . Mike and Charlotte. These two . . . a boy of 11 and a girl of 10 . . . are both learning to ride and they sure did enter into the spirit of the Show and enjoyed themselves very much.

Every child entering a horse in the Show went home with a token some kind, a tie rope or a pair of jeans, with the prizes donated by the merchants. So everybody was happy. The various events followed each other with clocklike precision, showing really good management. Congratulations!

I have been trying to ride my horse, but the injuries sustained in a highway accident makes each ride somewhat similar to the monkey riding on the porcupine, who yelled out, "No pleasure without pain."

A friend of mine who inquired about my health by telephone when he heard of the accident, recited the following poem to me:

"I should have known," said the cannibal king,
As he paced the beach with a frown;
'I shouldn't have eaten that Mission steak.
You can't keep a good man down.' "

At least there is no harm in trying.

We Americans are strange critters and very gullible.

For example, we elect or appoint individuals into Government positions where they can exert great power and influence over our property and our daily lives; then we allow them to cheat us, annoy and torture us almost beyond the power of human comprehension. Remember Pendergast.

Nuts, I sez.

Walnut Creek Flower Show Big Sucess

The first Walnut Creek Flower Show, held last weekend, was pronounced a great success by the sponsors, Mt. Diablo Men's Garden Club, exhibitors and visitors alike.

The new office building of the Coast Counties Gas and Electric Company, scene of the show, served as a beautiful setting for the flowers displayed by Contra Costa residents, many of whom won ribbon awards. An estimated 2500 people visited the two-day show.

Just prior to the formal opening at 2 p.m. Saturday, H. C. Cherrington, mayor of Walnut Creek and E. G. Lawson, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Coast Counties Gas and Electric Company, cut a ribbon placed across the entrance to the building, newest of the Company's seven district offices in Contra Costa County.

Besides the many beautiful entries of local residents, two professional exhibits attracted much attention. These were the peonie display of the Moraga Valley Nursery of Orinda and the Hybrid Begonia exhibit of Antonelli Brothers.

The Mt. Diablo Men's Garden Club committee in charge of the show consisted of O. P. Erdahl, chairman, C. S. Bowers, G. H. Conner, A. M. Goff, A. P. Herman, Frank L Leach and Guy F. Spencer.

Among the judges was Mrs. Constance Hansen, garden columnist for this newspaper.

Christian Science Board Holds Meet

BOSTON, Mass., June 7 — Declaring that democratic government is the instrument through which an irresistible, spiritual force is being channeled into the affairs of men, the Christian Science Board of Directors today urged Christian Scientists, in annual meeting, here, to work strongly and actively for the defense of free governments throughout the world.

The incoming President, Harry C. Browne, whose only official duty is to preside at the Annual Meeting, declared that the success of any organization, institution or government depends upon the spiritual efficacy of the governing or controlling instrument.

"With the problem of world peace confronting us," he said, "these same divine qualities applied in individual thought and action will be found as potent and as powerful as they were in Jesus' time."

The retiring President of The Mother Church, Mrs. Helen Chaffee Elwell, of East Hebron, N. H., and Boston, reiterated the need for zealously guarding the democratic privileges of free assembly and freedom of worship, which Christian Scientists, she said, were exercising today in annual meeting.

Childrens hospital Sponsoring Straw Hat Review Show

Children's Hospital of the East Bay, which is sponsoring the first eight performances of the all new Straw Hat Revue, "Nothing Ventured, Nothing Gained," reports that ticket sales are progressing rapidly now that opening night—June 18th — is close at hand.

Rehearsals for the new revue, which is directed by Elizabeth Berryhill, are coming along equally as rapidly, for only a few weeks ago the cast finished an early spring engagement in hte Hawaiian Islands.

To the many Bay Area residents who became acquainted with the Straw Hatters last year, going back to their Lafayette theatre will be like meeting old friends again. Those who never quite made it last year will be thrilled at finding something new and distinctive in the way of original satire and musical comedy entertainment.

"Nothing Ventured, Nothing Gained" will be presented nightly except Sunday, and tickets for the public will soon be available at Sherman & Clay in San Francisco and Oakland, at Breuners in Oakland and Berkeley, at Hink's in Berkeley, and at Richard's Drug Store in Lafayette. They will be priced at 1.50 and 2.00 including tax.

Fred Morrow and conducted by Orinda teachers with the assistance of college age young people from other communities, a Vacation School for boys and girls is being held at Orinda Community church from June 14 to 25. Sessions will be held each week-day morning from 9 to 12. Activities will include songs, Bible stories, crafts, games and other features designed to make learning fun.

The Orinda school will serve as a training center for a group of ten young people of college age who are to conduct similar schools in various communities throughout the summer. It is part of the Student Summer Service program under the general direction of Rev. W. W. Meyer.

There is to be no charge for the two weeks, according to the Rev. Mr. Morrow, but a voluntary offering to care for costs will be taken at the final exhibit and program Friday, June 25.

Lila Murphy's Dance Recital To Be Held

Lila Murphy will present her Dance Recital on Friday evening, June 18 at Acalanes High School Auditorium. More than one hundred children will participate.

The little tots, four to six years of age, will act out all of their dances, thereby demonstrating a basic training in Pantomine, so important in later ballet work. The routines are quite complicated but the tiny ones have a complete understanding of each dance.

The intermediate class, up to thirteen years, is presenting three diverse numbers; a Flat Ballet, an interpretive Cymbol dance, and a Tap routine. The older girls have Anitra's Dance and a Ballet. These dances are spectacular and quite complicated.

One of the highlights of the Recital will be the Toy Shop scene from the Ballet Coppelia. This number embraces not only pantomine necessary for the telling of the story but also necessitates the interpretation of the Dance of the Automatons, the Czardas and the lovely Coppelia Waltz. This entire scene is acted and danced by the Ballet class which in one year has accomplished the difficult task of attaining elevation to Toe work.

Grammar school children will be admitted to the Recital free of charge. There will be a small admittance fee for adults who are not parents of the participating children. Net profits will be given to two deserving Orinda projects.

Save a life — drive carefully.

Day of Children To be Celebrated

The Day of Children and Youth will be celebrated in a joint Church and Sunday school service at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, June 13 at the Orinda Community Church. There will be no school at the usual 9:30 hour.

Brief dramatizations are to be presented, one by sixth grade girls under Mrs. R. A. Potter, and a second under direction of Elizabeth Miles by children and young people, assisted by the choir. The general theme of the program is "The Lord's Prayer." Certificates of graduation from the various depatments will be presented by Dr. E. D. Howe, superintendent of the school. An offering will have as its object the Student Summer Service project of Northern California churches.

Lafayette Legion Nine Defeats El Cerrito Club 3-1 in Opener

The Lafayette Legion nine was the winner by a 3-1 score over an El Cerrito club that battled all the way in a seven inning game played at St. Mary's College last Saturday afternoon.

Lynn Amason, cracker - jack shortstop, played a bang up game defensively and came through with a home run in the 5th to score Ken Jones who had walked earlier in the inning.

Amason also scored in the first after walking and coming home on a single to left field by Dave Johnson.

El Cerrito scored in the seventh when Petree got on by an error and scored on a single by Salisbury.

Dave Johnson pitched three hit balls to register the win with George Cockerton behind the mask. Vittow and Salisbury formed the battery for the visitors.

IN HOSPITAL

Judy Beatgno of Lafayette had her tonsils out June 3 at the Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Lafayette Team Loses Opener

The local softball team lost the opening league game of the "48" season when Tiny's Hut upset them 5 to 4 in a game played last Wednesday night.

Leading in the early part of the fray, Lafayette committed errors at a critical time to drop the game in the final inning.

New players have been added to the roster and a few games should do much to round the club into a well knit unit. Bud Hooper looks to be a find at first base and promises to add punch to the offense with his long range hitting.

IT'S ON THE PATIO FOR YOUR PLEASURE

FROM THE SIDELINES

By Coach Erwin Mattson

Local softball fans are looking forward to the coming season and for those who haven't as yet seen the Walnut Creek park a pleasant surprise is in store.

We can safely say that it's the best set up within miles.

The field has been planted to grass and blessed by late rains has developed into a real turf which will bear a lot of hard usage.

ADD LIGHTS

Four new powerful lights have been added which, with new fences and bleachers, makes for the ball players dream.

The city of Walnut Creek is to be congratulated on its excellent job and rest assured that it will bring much favorable publicity in return for the time, effort and money expended.

Plans call for bringing in the best outside clubs available for exhibition games.

THE SCHEDULE

Opening tilts are set for 7:30 p.m. each Monday through Friday with a second game at approximately 8:45.

Lafayette will be represented with the defending champs from last year. Led by Harry Dunham the fireball artist, Lafayette promises to be in the thick of the race.

Newcomers to the squad are Geo. Sutton, Bud Hooper, Ray Brekke, Don Ferrarese and the Smith brothers with others to be added.

Every club in the league appears to be stronger and El Rey a newcomer ranks as a favorite due to a roster of name players.

WHAT! FOOTBALL

Football is already here as far as coaches are concerned with supplies having to be ordered so as to be ready for September 1st which marks the opening date of practice.

Officials for league play have been set for the '48 season. Coaches are setting up their practice schedules and must determine well in advance the type of play to be used on the basis of the material at hand. The Dons lose many good players through graduation but have the nucleus for a good team coming back for the fall term. The big question is reserve strength and several positions appear to be wide open.

The Acalanes eleven will appear in new varsity suits with rayon pants and jerseys as a part of their fall ensemble!

YES — A GIRDLE

The back of the pants are built of much the same material as a two way stretch girdle and gives that form fit which enables a player to move faster and easier.

Most important is the fact that it makes it much more difficult for an opposing player to grasp loose pants of the uniform.

A turnout of better than a hundred candidates is expected and this number will be trimmed to a workable units as soon as each player has received an adequate trial.

CALL — THE DOCTOR

Medical examinations will be held the latter part of August and suits will be issued the week prior to September 1st in order to get all preliminaries out of the way so that work may get under way from the opening gun.

Plans call for night workouts the first 10 days to enable players to hold down summer jobs.

Due to warm weather (it's hoped) much more can be accomplished in night sessions. It will also enable football fans to observe early workouts so all around it's a good deal.

The opening game is with Albany at Acalanes Memorial Field Friday evening, September 17.

Softball Schedule For Coming Week

The Walnut Creek Softball League resumes play after last week's opening which found El Rey and Tinys Hut taking the league lead with wins over Stans Brickhouse and the Lafayette Merchants respectively.

Thursday, the Lafayette club was scheduled to meet Stans Brickhouse in the nightcap following a game between the Kiwanis and Arthurs.

Friday's schedule shows the gals in the 7:15 games with El Rey at 9:00 in an exhibition.

Monday the 14th, it's a Service Club affair with a league tilt following when El Rey and Tinys collide.

Tuesday, it's piwanis and Union in the opener with American Legion and Stan's in a senior league game.

On Wednesday El Rey and Lafayette meet in the 7:15 game with Stan's in an exhibition in the closing tilt.

LEAVE FOR LOUISIANA

Mrs. M. S. Sparling and her son Stephen and her mother Mrs. Ida Nelson left Sunday morning for a trip to Louisiana. They expect to be gone from Lafayette about a month and will visit relatives while in Louisiana. Mr. Sparling was not able to accompany them on the trip and so is left a bachelor until their return.

Legion Loses to Walnut Creek 10-9

The Lafayette Legion took advantage of a nine inning practice game last Sunday to give all hands a chance at bat and afield. The play was rugged and slow with Walnut Creek edging out the locals 10-9.

Lafayette used 14 players and the visitors threw a like number into the fray.

Roy Van den Heuval went the route for Lafayette with Dunbar and Cockerton on the receiving end. Viscarra, Stafford Powell did the throwing for W.C. with Porter and McBride behind the plate.

IN SAN FRANCISCO

Your Garden IN LAFAYETTE AND ORINDA

BY CONSTANCE HANSEN

For the column this week I went on a "busman's holiday," visiting the local nurseries. Next to working in the garden, this is my favorite outdoor sport.

We gardeners and homeowners in the Lafayette-Orinda area are remarkably fortunate in having so many really fine up-to-date nurseries at which to buy our plants and garden supplies so near at hand.

The Happy Valley nursery near the western edge of the Lafayette business district is the one which has been in operation longest in this section. It was started back in 1933 as the Orinda Nursery by A. J. Memmesheimer, being first located in Orinda Village.

He moved it to the present location in 1940 when the Orinda lease expired. The nursery was bought by Dave Calderon in 1945, although Mr. Memmesheimer is still present to lend a helping hand.

COMPLETE NURSERY

They specialize in camellias and roses, but carry a complete line of ornamental shrubs and trees, as well as standard brands of insecticides, garden tools, and other necessary supplies. They also have the agency for the new Alumalath, which makes the construction of the lath house so much simpler, and comparatively inexpensive prefabricated greenhouses.

The nursery covers an acre of ground, and much of the stock is grown right there from the small lining-out size to landscape specimens. Although they do not do any landscaping themselves, they give a good deal of advice as to how and what to plant, and send out gardeners or landscapists on request.

MEET BERT WRIGHT

Right in Lafayette we have the Wright Bros. Nursery, a little off the highway on Oakland Ave. This nursery specializes in landscaping as well as supplying plants and other materials, since they started in the landscaping business in 1942, several years before building the nursery in 1945.

They keep a full line of ornamentals and garden sundries, and their watchword is "if we don't have what yo want, we'll get it."

Owner Bert Whight is a true artist and for proof of this just walk into his nursery and see the beautiful displays that he arranges. In front are seasonal plantings. The tulip and hyancinth plantings this year were particularly lovely.

In addition, the nursery is growing much of its shrubs and this coming year plans an even greater planting.

MORAGA VALLEY NURSERY

The next oldest nursery, and the largest in size in this area, comprising 3½ acres, is the Moraga Valley nursery, on the Moraga Highway south of Orinda Crossroads. It was started in 1935 by Galen Darr, who was previously associated with the Berkeley Horticultural Nursery.

During the past year, this nursery, although always attractive, has been made even more so by a complete "face-lifting," so to speak.

There is a new paved parking area and a new display lath house across the front, which is landscaped with seasonal bedding plants and very unusual 8 to 10 foot standard camellias. Along the main drive there is a permanent planting of the red horsechestnuts, blooming now. A new office and warehouse are still in progress.

In this nursery, too, is to be found many answers to garden needs, although they don't handle certain items, such as bulbs. But their specialty is the acid-lovers, such as azaleas, rhododendrons, camellias, Mt. Laurel, and so on.

They propagate many of these themselves in their ample greenhouse and offer named varieties and hybrids in small sizes or large. They have been specializing also for the past few years in herbaceous peonies, and now offer many fine new varieties of this old favorite. Those who attended the Flower Show in Walnut Creek last weekend saw their display of large blooming peony plants.

ORCHARD NURSERY

Last, but not least, we come to the Orchard Nursery, owned by Jack Schneider and Etuart Wade, and the youngest nursery in the group, which has made up in progress for its lack of years.

The nursery was started in January 1946, and now occupies about two acres. There is just about everything there, including an unusually complete line of ornamental pots and other containers, as well as stakes and trellises. Spray materials and fertilizer are kept on hand in packages of all sizes to accommodate not only the back yard gardener but the orchardist as well.

There is a complete line of all sorts of interesting house plants, which are always nice for small gifts, or to give the finishing touch to living room or kitchen decoration.

Just this past week they received a new assortment of kitchen herbs, sometimes hard to come by these days, or at least hard to find all in one place.

Just offhand I noticed plants of the real French tarragon, savory, marjoran, rosemary, several different mints and thymes, lavender and others.

HANSEN-HILL NURSERY

The Hansen-Hill Nursery specializes in out-of-the-ordinary and hard to find perennials and rock garden plants. They carry an especially fine strain of the Vetterle and Reinelt primroses, and a good assortment of camellias. Most of the plants for sale may be seen growing in garden surroundings since the nursery is run by two women. Lillian Hill and Constance Hansen in their home gardens on Oak Hill and Orchard Road in Lafayette.

One interesting feature of all these nurseries, aside from their stock and pleasant service, is the fact that most of them are family enterprises with the wives doing their share as sales clerks, office help or propagators.

Yearly 'Fly-Up,' Court of Awards Held by Girl Scouts at Orinda School

What could be more impressive than the sight Thursday, June 3, of about 130 healthy happy Orinda girls in their neat Girl Scout and Brownie uniforms marching into the Orinda Union School Auditorium behind the flags of our United States and of their Scout organization.

Their parents and leaders rightfully swelled with pride as these Scouts massed together for the yearly "Fly-Up" of those Brownies ready for full Scouthood and for the Court of Awards at which they get final and public acclaim for the many achievements of the past months.

Scout Joanne Willits proved a most capable Announcer as she called off the order of the proceedings in a clear sure voice. The Flag Bearers she directed through the Salute to the Flag and Retirement of the colors were Scouts Peggy Everest, Lois Galbraith, Phyllis Pyle, Eleunore Neldam, Catharine Monroe and Cora Prifold. Color Guards were Elizabeth Jansse, Carol Ann Rechtiene, Diane Biederman, Phyllis Arnold.

WELCOMED TO SCOUTS

Troop 35 who have had a wonderful three years of Brownie lore under the gay delightful leadership of Mrs. T. P. Bacon, Jr., will always remember the candle lighting ceremony in which they demonstrated their knowledge of the Scout Laws and Promise and were welcomed into Scouthood by their future leader, Mrs. E. H. Erikson, who slipped on each her orange tie and Tenderfoot Pin and exchanged with each the Scout salute and handshake.

Surely they feel wanted as Sister Scouts after being led by the Brownie Guard, Scouts Mary Ann Somers and Carol Ann Rechtiene, being guided through the recital of the promise by Scout Joan Gordon and receiving the "Welcome Song" from all the Scouts. If they feel a trifle "older" than the little Brownies who sang good-bye and opened the Brownie ring for them to "fly", they do so forgivably and with nostalgia as they tuck away their Brownie mementoes.

SONGS RENDERED

Song Leaders who led in "The Promise Song," "Welcome Song" "Girl Scout Hymn" "Comin' Round the Mountain" and "Good-Night" were Judy Hall and Ann Ward.

Mrs. Marion Conklin, Area Director of the Diablo Area Girl Scout Council, was introduced by Scout Willits and then conducted the Court of Awards in which each Scout marched up to the candle lit table with its orange nasturtiums that matched their ties so perfectly, saluted Mrs. Conklin with the special Girl Scout Salute and proudly received her awards. Such an array of badges as made brothers and little sisters in the audience gasp, grown-ups sigh for their own younger more energetic days.

BADGES AWARDED

Member of Troops 34 and 44 received their second class badges earned with the guidance and help of leaders Mrs. Carl Kalbfleisch and Mrs. R. D. Graffis.

Leader Mrs. Donald Krotz and her assistants smilingly watched Troop 30 receiving badges in Pottery, Drawing and Painting, Swimming, Hostess, Dancer and Photography as well as a number of 5 year pins and 2nd class badges.

Troop 32 works in two separate units under Mrs. Clyde Bumgarner and Mrs. E. R. Dempster respectively. Among the awards granted the first group were Sewing, Housekeeper, Hostess, Horsewoman, Cook, Dancer, Pottery, Cat and Dog, Design, Letters. The second group had concentrated on Tree Finder, Wild Plant Finder, Journalist, Play Director, Interior Decorator and Book Binder.

PLANS FOR FUTURE

After witnessing the number and scope of the badges won by Troop 38 we may well look for some intreesting news next year when they launch Orindas first Senior Girl Scout Troop under the capable understanding leadership of Mrs. R. D'Arezzo who has seen them through this busy successful winter. Awarded members of Troop 38 were a number of first class badges as well as badges in Cooking, Drama, Outdoor Sports, Winter Sports, Hostess, Leathercraft, Design, Dancing, Swimming, Cycler, Games, Weaving, Handywoman, Outdoor Cook, Child Care (your reporter is sure she missed a few when her own baby started dropping pennies on the floor).

After Mrs. Conklin closed the Court of Awards, Mrs. E. H. Erikson, Vice-President of the Diablo Area Girl Scout Council, who as Chairman for the evening had organized this never to be forgotten occasion, addressed the Scouts on the full meaning of the 4th Scout Law, "A Girl Scout is a friend to all and a sister to every other Girl Scout."

ACTIVITIES DESCRIBED

Mrs. Erikson emphasized the internationl expression of friendship and drew from individual Scouts brief reports of their activities of the past year which proved that their time is not all spent in acquiring skills and winning honors for themselves. Activities mentioned were participation in the Juliette Low Tea which stresses International Friendship, in the Area wide Girl Scout Birthday celebration on March 12 where songs and dances of other nations were performed, and preparation of clothing kits for less fortunate girls in other lands, clothing kits of such quality as to raise the morale and instill hope in the recipient. The speaker pointed out the importance of the words "try" and "do" in the Scout Promise, and the necessity for something better than mere tolerance in the Scout efforts to understand and respect others.

The evening closed with the gay note of "Comin' Round the Mountain" and the sisterly "Good-Night Scouts!" Refreshments and a showing of the 1947 Big Sur Girl Scout Camp picture followed.

Orinda Nursery School Holds Its Annual Homecoming Day, Graduation

Thirty children proudly accepted their diplomas as graduates of the Orinda Nursery School yesterday morning at the Park Pool. It was the school's second annual alumni and homecoming day and the sixth annual graduation.

What a picnic — A pony ride for all the kids, the pony supplied by Mrs. Graham's riding Academy; and a picnic lunch of sandwiches and ice cream, arranged by the food committee consisting of Mrs. George Kirby, Chairman, Mrs. Norman Ketsdever and Mrs. John MacFarland.

Presenting the diplomas was Mrs. W. A. Patterson, Director of the group. Mrs. Robert Anthonisen and Mrs. Patterson will be directors for the coming year.

MOVING THIS WEEK

After this week, the play school will be moved to the Community Center building to prepare for the fall season. Drawing on funds raised at the recent benefit, the summer skeleton staff will arrange for the building of a play area at the community center. Mrs. Ray Devin, Mrs. Jesse Schwarck, Mrs. Jack Stahle, and Mrs. Sam Ballard are on this committee. This playschool equipment will be used by the Nursery from 9 a.m. to 12 and will be available for community use in the afternoons.

Membership in the Nursery school is open to all pre-school children in the area. Those wishing to be placed on the waiting list should phone Mrs. Douglas Garneau of La Espiral, Orinda 2870.

Country Club Sports Dance Set for June 26

A gala dance with two orchestras and famous entertainers is planned by the Orinda Country Club for Saturday night, June 26 from 9 to 1. This Spring Sports Dance will be the last dance of the season until September.

The ladies will be the judges when the men parade their sports attire and a prize will be awarded to the best-dressed man.

Continuous music will be supplied by two orchestras with rhumbas, tangos, and sambas on the program.

The famous Franciscan trio and Lenny Rapose, who has recently entertained at Del Monte, will entertain.

DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Kales, Jr. entertained Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Telfer and Mrs. B. L. York at dinner June 1.

Neatest Package Picked by Experts

The fair community of Orinda had two of its fairest members selected to act as impartial judges at a recent beauty contest sponsored by the Fruitvale Merchants to select a candidate from this area to represent them in the Miss California contest.

Why Bill Mott and Bob Clough were selected we will never know, but we might hazard a guess. Because they are both identified with selection af fine vegetables and packaged goods (members of Retail Merchants Assoc.), it was thought they could pick out the neatest package.

At any rate they made their selection of the most intelligent candidate and returned home with 'nary a phone number but with confidence that their selection is the future Miss California.

John Ogdens Leave for Trip

Mrs. John Ogden will be leaving by United Airways June 11 for Omaha, accompanied by her young sons, John and Carl. Then by Mid-Continent they will fly to St. Paul, Minnesota. Then they will visit friends and relatives in Wisconsin and Freeport, Ill.

In the latter part of July they will visit in South Dakota and Nebraska. John Ogden will meet his family in Denver and together they will motor through Grand Canon, Bryce Canyon, then up to Pikes Peak, and on to Dallas, Texas and Nogales, Arizona and then home by way of Los Angeles. While Mrs. Ogden is away the house will be rented by F. S. Knouse and family who are planning to build later on their lot on Crest View, Orinda.

The law, as well as common sense, requires that drivers stop for school buses.

The group presented a gift, something useful for camping, to Rev. and Mrs. Fred Morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson are looking forward to their long motor trip which will take them first to Jamestown, North Dakota, to visit their son Perry, wife, and two sons. Perry a graduate of U. C., is well known in Orinda. He is now assistant professor in charge of the art department in the Presbyterian Jamestown University.

On the way, the Wilsons will stop at Yellowstone Park. From Jamestown, they will motor on to Ohio, Illinois and Iowa, visiting the scenes of their parents and grandparents. While the Wilsons are gone Mrs. Wilson's sister of Lindsey, Calif., and Mrs. Howard W. White, will occupy the house, together with her visiting daughter and granddaughter from College Park, Maryland.

When Good Neighbors GET TOGETHER
...down come shopping costs!

It's the "extra costs" that strain home budgets. One sure place to cut unnecessary expense is in the cost of shopping itself—transportation, lunch, and incidentals. That's why it pays to shop the "straight-line" way:

1. Go in a straight line to LOCAL Stores for daily, routine purchases.
2. Go in a straight line to BERKELEY Stores, your nearest Metropolitan Shopping Center, for merchandise not available at home.

You'll find Berkeley merchants neighborly, eager to serve, hoping to win you for a steady customer. Here are some of the advantages Berkeley offers:

- large selections, with new merchandise displayed as early as in any other national market.
- competitive prices.
- less traffic, easier parking.

If you can't find it locally BUY IT IN BERKELEY
